

Kordis jmk

Region profile:

- Border region: Microregion Vranovsko; South Moravian Region (Czech Republic) + Weinviertel/ Waldviertel (Austria)
- Area: 21 municipalities, 250 km²
- Inhabitants: 5.480
- Population density: Less than 30 residents per km² in Microregion Vranovsko, Znojmo district 70 residents per km², South Moravian Region 160 residents per km²

Organisational profile:

- Publicly owned company responsible for the Integrated Public Transport in the South Moravian Region and ensures comprehensive activities in all types of public transport: conceptual planning, operational inspection, controlling and public relations;
- Manage, develop and maintain regional and city public transport (including regional and local buses and trains).

Role in the project:

- Provide long term experience in the fields of intermodal transport, coordination of intermodal public transport nodes, passenger information services and usage of satellite navigation for Public Transport Central Managing Centre.

Activities in the project:

- Enhance cross-border transport connections by regional buses and trains to encourage cross-border commuting, tourism, local economy and support environmentally-friendly mobility in Central Europe;
- Establish two long-term working groups of train specialists and bicycle specialists and implementation of a system of bus lines transporting bicycles;
- Support cross-border cooperation oriented on cyclists and tourism in the sparsely populated regions based on combination of existing products and newly developed services;
- Coordinate intermodal public transport nodes, passenger information services and usage of satellite navigation for Public Transport Central Managing Centre;
- Develop and implement a promotion campaign focused on cross-border regular & tourist transport, buses for cyclists and implementation of a cross-border tourist train system. 