

Meeting Agenda

Thursday, 4 October 2018

12.30	Guided Sightseeing Walk in Szeged Downtown (meeting point: Main entrance of the Restaurant “Bistorant” at Hotel Soleil)
2:00/14.00	Registration, Lunch (venue: Restaurant “Bistorant” at Hotel Soleil)
3:00/15:00	Welcome/Introductions Erik Fisher, VIRI Miklós Lukovics, EMFIE, University of Szeged
3:10–4:30/ 15:10–16:30	Panel 1 – Early career researchers Johnathan Hankins (Bassetti Foundation, Milan) - Beauty as a measurement of responsibility Nikoletta Nádas (EMFIE) – RRI among researchers in-the-making Cian O’Donovan (UK) – Digital fabrication and human capabilities: analysing experiences in UK makerspaces
4:30–5:00/ 16:30–17:00	Break
5:00-6:00/ 17:00–18:00	Panel debate 1: A self-examination of RRI as a field: Prospects, limitations, trade-offs around RRI integration in R&D practice/policy Erik Fisher, ASU Sujatha Raman, Australian National University Tsjalling Swierstra, Maastricht University Armin Grunwald, KIT / I T A S
6:30/18:30	Dinner – Hungarian Eve with Thomas Necker Music&Magic show Venue: Roosevelt téri Halászsárda

Friday, 5 October 2018

Breakfast	Hotel
9:30–11:00	Panel 2 – Senior researchers Prof. Dr. Armin Grunwald (KIT / I T A S) – The cognitive interest of Technology Assessment and its relation to Responsible Innovation

	Tsjalling Swierstra (Maastricht University) - RI in the Netherlands: an update Sujatha Raman (Australian National University) - RRI in the context of Australia and the Australian National University
11:00–11:15	Coffee break
11:15–12:45/ 11:15–12:45:	Panel 3 – Senior researchers Sergio Urueña, Hannot Rodríguez, Andoni Ibarra (University of the Basque Country UPV/EHU) - Anticipation as a socio-epistemic practice: towards a more robust decision-making Christine Aicardi (King's College London) - Accompanying responsible innovation in neuro-ICT: the Human Brain Project experience Miklós Lukovics (University of Szeged) – VIRIdity in Hungary? – poll about emerging technologies
12:45–13:45/ 12.45–13:45	Working Lunch: Futures of RRI
1:45–3:15/ 13:45–15:15	Role-play workshop: Self-driving cars and responsible innovation Invited speaker: Béla Kézy, expert in city development: Vision about living in future cities
3:15–3:30/ 15:15–15.30	Break
3:15–4:00 15:15–16:00	RRI related projects in the EU Péter Kakuk (Central European University): Fostering RRI within the Synbio Industry - insights from the SMART-Map project Biborka Janaky-Bohner (EMFIE): Danube Framework for Responsible Research and Innovation using Socio-Technical Integration (DSTIR-project) Beáta Udvari (EMFIE): Responsible and Innovative SMEs in Central Europe (ROSIE-project)
4:00/16:00	VIRI 2019 and other Plans
	Departure