

FIFTH MONITORING COMMITTEE MEETING SUMMARY

March 2023 | Vienna

21/03/2023

Agreement on the application package of the second call

Shortly before the launch of the second call for project proposals, the Interreg CENTRAL EUROPE monitoring committee has approved the application package with key call documents including the terms of reference.

Following this decision, the call was officially opened at the programme conference in Vienna on 22 March 2023, which was attended by more than 900 participants online and in person. The call invites organisations from across central Europe to submit transnational cooperation ideas in all programme priorities and specific objectives u 17 May 2023 (13h00 CET). The indicative call budget is around 60 million Euros ERDF. Read more about the call here.

The monitoring committee also agreed on the assessment methodology for the second call and discussed strategic options in view of future calls for proposals. It was decided to publish initial information about the third call already soon after closing the current call.

The sixth meeting of the monitoring committee will take place in Vienna on 16-17 October 2023.
